

INTERVIEW AND INTERROGATION SEMINAR

INTERVIEW AND INTERROGATION SEMINAR

SEPTEMBER 8-9, 2010

8:00AM-5:00PM

The topics that will be discussed are as follows:

General overview of how individuals communicate

How our communication has changed over time

The importance of body language and eye assessing cues in detecting deception

Overview of Forensic Statement Analysis

Analysis of verbal and written statements

Practical exercises to identify important issues in statements

Videos utilized to demonstrate multiple issues in detecting deception

Active class participation is utilized during the training

This seminar is presented by the UNLV International Gaming Institute with the intent to increase the training and professionalism of gaming security professionals, law enforcement, professionals in the parole and probation field, attorneys, etc.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

This class is open to participants in a variety of fields. Any persons involved in a field in which they are required to obtain information from another person would benefit. This would include any type of investigative function, including criminal, internal and civil. This class is not restricted to law enforcement personnel.

INSTRUCTOR

Bruce Smith, Retired Lieutenant with the Maryland State Police

FEES

Early Bird	$725.00
Regular	$795.00

For more information and to register, visit <http://igi.unlv.edu> and go to the Professional Seminars page. For queries, call us at (702) 895-2008 or send an email to nakia.jackson-hale@unlv.edu.